Cook – Winery Casual Food

We are looking for an enthusiastic Cook to join our Little Straw Winery in West Kelowna. In this position, you will get to create a menu with food items that can be shared amongst the guests. Our guests love enjoying a glass of wine with food that can be easily shared with their friends and family in our casual setting restaurant and patio.

The restaurant is small but can get busy during the peak tourist season at the winery. We need someone who can manage from creating a menu, costing out each of the items, ordering groceries and supplies to keeping the entire restaurant operating with the help of other winery staff. In this position, you will get to meet guests from across the globe and enjoy the breathtaking Okanagan view every day at work. This is a unique and varied role that requires someone who is motivated, outgoing, and a self-started.

We are a small winery and looking for someone who can be part of our growing team and help us take our winery to the next level.
